Instructors Comment On McCarthy, Murrow

Social science instructors generally expressed agreement with CBS Commentator Edward R. Murrow's attack Tuesday on Senator McCarthy's methods of ridding the country of Communism.

Murrow said that Sen. McCarthy repeatedly has stepped over the line between "investigating and persecuting."

Dr. Jackson Main, assistant professor of history, said that McCarthy is using the "wrong technique." "Ideas," he added, referring to Communism, "can not be fought by repressing them. They can only be fought with superior ideas."

The Republican party supported McCarthy, Dr. Main said, because public opinion seemed to have favored him. "But, he continued, 'the Republicans seem to be switching now, perhaps because public opinion may no longer be favorable towards McCarthy.'"

Mrs. Mildred Winters, assistant professor of history, agreed with Dr. Main, but refused to add any comments.

Edward Rogers, assistant professor of history and political science, expressed "disfavor" towards McCarthy, but refused to comment, contending that the issue was "too hot."

Dr. George Bruntz, professor of history and political science, said that "too much has been said on the subject already." He commended Murrow, however, for his "spirit" in speaking up against McCarthy in a recent television program.

Dr. William Steele, assistant professor of geography refused to comment, saying that he has "already said too much on the subject of McCarthy."

Play Continues For Weekend

Tonight will begin another drama-filled weekend for San Jose State playgoers when "Volpone" opens at 7:15 o'clock in the Little Theater.

The play, written by Ben Jonson, also will be presented Friday and Saturday evenings. Limited seats still are available in the Drama office. Tickets are 75 cents general admission and 50 cents with student body cards.

Playing the part of Volpone, the fox, is Robert Dietle. His cunning servant and partner in crime is Mosca, Richard Rizzo.

The three associates who both Volpone and Mosca try to outwit are Voltore, a lawyer, Gerald Charlebois; Corbaccio, an old gentleman, Joseph LoBue; and Corvino, a merchant, Brad Curtis.

Love interest is brought into the plot by Bonario, played by William Brown, and Celia, Rosemary Pilcher.

Others in the cast include Ronald Sherriffs, Kenneth Rugg, Lewis Campbell, Gary Waller, Kenneth Slough, Darwin Hageman, Ronald Stokes, Gordon Kendricks, Sandra Lewis, Barbara Forbes, Celia Cross, Jean Norris, Jay Fox, Craig Thush and Donald Barr.

The play is directed by Dr. James Clancy. Costumes are by Bernice Prisk and J. Wendell Johnson is set designer.

Next Drama department production will be "Hedda Gabler," scheduled for later this month. It is directed by Miss Elizabeth Loeffler.

Student Court Asks Eligibility Group For Clarification

The proposed eligibility requirements of San Jose State were discussed at the Student Court meeting yesterday and it was decided to return the report to the Eligibility committee for clarification.

The Court was in favor of the proposed requirements but wanted a few points cleared up, Stan Croonquist, chief justice, said.

The Eligibility committee, under Dean Stanley Benz, proposed that students must have a one point overall average to be eligible to run for office, hold an office, accept an appointive office or represent the college. Also, a student may hold only one major office.

The court also granted a request of the Social Affairs committee that it be given space in the May elections to take an opinion poll on whether students want next year's Winter dance formal.

Applications for a new court clerk will be made available early spring quarter, Croonquist said.

Settles Tells Views on Wells

Wesley Robert Wells, 44, sits in death row at San Quentin prison. He is accused of hurling a cuspidor at a guard and as a result faces execution on April 9.

Consequently, floods of pamphlets and papers are being circulated asking Gov. Goodwin Knight for leniency. This literature says that because Wells did not kill the guard, it is not fair that he should die.

Asked to comment on the situation, Claude N. Settles, sociology professor, acknowledged that "the situation presents a definite problem."

Settles went on to express his view that there should be no capital punishment, but that since such a law existed, it should be obeyed.

He added that he had discussed the situation a week ago with Bruce McCoy, pre-parole official at San Quentin. According to McCoy, Wells had broken prison laws once before by "knifing" a fellow prisoner. Also, according to McCoy, the attack on the prison guard was entirely without provocation.

When asked about the literature requesting a pardon, Settles said that he felt that this was being backed by some group hoping to stir up racial differences.

Swagert Resigns

Dr. S. Laird Swagert, professor of political science, has resigned as adviser to the Student Court, according to Stan Croonquist, chief justice.

Dr. Swagert has served as adviser for four years. No successor has been named.

Symphonic Band

DR. ROBERT FIESTER will direct the San Jose State College Symphonic Band next Sunday at the annual program in the Concert hall of the Music building. Beginning at 3:15 p.m., the concert will feature Handel's "Royal Fireworks Music," composed in 1749 in celebration of the Peace of Aix La Chappelle.

Mystery Grows With Unknown Speaker Identity

Nobody seemed to know yesterday who was going to speak to what audience today at 3:30 p.m. in Morris Dailey auditorium.

According to a report left in the Spartan Daily office and printed in yesterday's newspaper, "Dr. Fred Schwarz, noted Australian orator, would speak today on 'Why Millionaires, College Professors and Ministers of Religion Become Communists.'"

The report failed to indicate who Dr. Schwarz is or what organization is sponsoring the speech. Dr. Schwarz is not listed in the Australian Who's Who nor in any other Who's Who in the library.

On further check, it was discovered that the College Lecture committee knew nothing of his speech. Neither did President John T. Wahlquist.

It also was discovered that Morris Dailey auditorium has been reserved for a speech at 3:30 p.m. today. According to C. W. Quinley Jr., assistant registrar, who handles reservation of the auditorium, an unknown student walked into the Registrar's office Tuesday and reserved the auditorium.

Dormitory Once Successful Here

San Jose State once operated a dormitory which housed 90 women students and was entirely self-supporting, according to George Singewald, college housing officer.

The dormitory, which was located approximately one mile from campus, operated for six years, from 1945 until 1951 and finally closed because of the distance from the college. It was felt that "housing was sufficient closer to campus."

Singewald said that the dormitory was leased by the San Jose State College corporation, a non-profit organization which among other projects also furnished money for Spartan Field. The corporation raised $19,000 to remodel the structure, which formerly had been a large home.

Restrictions Suggested By Administration

Drastic restrictions on fraternities who fall .2 grade points below the college All-Men's average were suggested yesterday by the college administration, according to Dean of Men Stanley Benz.

The administration recommended in a letter to all fraternity advisers and presidents that any fraternity with a grade point average

Senior Dinner Held at Sainte Claire Tonight

The senior banquet will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the Empire Room of the Sainte Claire hotel, according to Bill Hushaw, senior class president.

Seniors are admitted free and a charge of $3.25 is made for each guest.

Speaker for the evening will be Dr. William Sweeney, dean of educational services. A pianist and two vocalists have been selected to provide entertainment.

More than 250 graduation announcements still are available in the Spartan Shop. The announcements sell for 13 cents apiece.

Caps and gowns also are available in the Spartan Shop. Seniors are asked to pick them up as soon as possible.

Commencement tickets may be obtained in the Graduate Manager's office. The tickets are free of charge. Graduation exercises will be tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Dr. Elmer H. Staffebach, professor of education, will deliver the commencement address. His subject will be "A Conversation in Rome," based on his experiences during his recent sabbatical leave in Europe.

Dr. James C. DeVoss, executive dean, will present candidates for degrees. President John T. Wahlquist will award degrees to the 126 graduating seniors.

Lyke Sales Set New Winter Record

Only a few of the 3700 copies of Lyke which were printed had not been sold when the booths closed at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, co-editors Hubert Vargas and Duane Fiorini announced.

The few remaining copies were placed on sale at the Graduate Manager's office.

Vargas stated that despite the bad weather a new winter quarter Lyke sales record was established.

Thrust & Parry

Stop Wells Execution!

Dear Thrust and Parry:

There is a campaign going on in California of which I feel every student at San Jose State College should know. It is the campaign to prevent the execution of a man who is charged with killing no one. The man is Wesley Robert Wells, a negro from Los Angeles. His execution date has been set for April 9.

When Wells was 19, he was convicted and sentenced to prison for possession of stolen clothing. Since that time, with the exception of a few months on parole, he has been in prison.

His record looks bad. It tells of many infractions of prison rules, and makes him look like a hardened criminal. What it doesn't tell is that he has had to face cruel treatment because he is a Negro and because he was taught from an early age to resist "Jim Crow." For instance, one fight that is on his record was a result of another prisoner calling him a "Nigger." In appealing to the warden he explained this and got the reply, "Well, that's what you are, isn't it?"

In 1944 he was charged with having a knife in his possession in a fight with another prisoner. He was sentenced to not less than five years nor more than life.

The specific time was supposed to be set by the Adult Authority, but on the recommendation of Albert H. Mundt, chief deputy district attorney, Sacramento County, it was not. Mundt suggested that by not setting a definite term, Wells' maximum sentence would be life, making him subject to prosecution under the California penal code, which says that anyone serving a life sentence who with malice aforethought attacks another will be punished by death.

Medical evidence by a prison psychiatrist that Wells was under tension and had an abnormal fear for his life was banned from the trial. The seven judges of the State Supreme Court agreed unanimously that the trial judge had committed an error in banning the medical evidence, and two of the jurists declared in affidavits that had they heard such testimony they would have changed their decision. Another trial was requested but refused.

This law should not apply to Wells in the first place since (1) he is not an actual life term, and (2) he did not commit the assault with malice aforethought. The prison psychiatrist said that he was under tension. Wells' execution date has been set for April 9, less than one month away. The only person who can prevent it now is Governor Knight.

McCarthy Slips; On Own Blacklist

The Democratic Digest, a monthly publication of the Democratic National Committee, released yesterday, features a list of 137 Republicans whom Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wisconsin) wants defeated in congressional elections next fall.

The Digest points out that the list, based upon the voting records of congressmen for the Mutual Security Act of 1952, contains the name of Senator McCarthy himself. The Security Act provides for military, economic and technical assistance to many countries which carry on non-military trade with Communist China.

When asked to comment on the article, Robert Free, chairman of the local Republican Committee, stated that he "feels just like President Eisenhower" on the McCarthy issue and refused further comment.

Summer Courses Offer Both Credit, Vacation

Learning language the easy way is the theme of posters now appearing on the modern language bulletin board.

Summer courses in French and Spanish at a number of universities in Mexico and Europe offer enticing summer vacations plus college credit for a fee.

Among the current offerings are six-weeks courses in Spanish, architecture, and liberal arts subjects in either the graduate or undergraduate school at the Monterrey Tec Summer School in Monterrey, Mexico.

Four three-weeks sessions in French and international institutes will be offered beginning in June at the University of Geneva in Switzerland.

The eighth annual summer session at the International Academy of Spanish in Saltillo, Mexico, offers six weeks training in beginning or advanced Spanish at a cost of $230 for tuition, room and board.

The National University of Mexico offers a full program of Spanish, Mexican culture, art, dance and history during the six-weeks summer session which opens June 21.

Former Warden Speaks on Reform

Julian Alco, former warden at San Quentin, spoke to Claude N. Settles' criminology class yesterday on prison reform. Alco, now retired, has visited around the world, observing prisoners and their treatment.

SJS Tracksters In AAU Relays

Seven Spartan trackmen have been picked by Coach Bud Winter to participate in the AAU relays Saturday in East Los Angeles Junior College's 22,000 seat stadium.

Four cindermen will make up the 440-yd. and 880-yd. relay entries, and one thincad will enter in the 3-mile jaunt, another in the broad jump and one in the pole vault.

Val Daniels, Don Cruickshank, Jack Albani and Art Hiatt are Coach Winter's choices for the relay events. Herm Stokes will be in the broad jump, Don Hubbard in the 3-mile, and Owen Rhodes in the pole vault.

Stokes, whose home is in Los Angeles, will be endeavoring to out-do his record-breaking 23 ft. 2 1/2 in. leap in the interclass track meet Friday afternoon.

Hubbard, this year's Turkey Trot victor, will be running the 3-mile event for the first time in "big time" competition. Coach Winter believes Hubbard's cross-country experience will see him through.

Rhodes, sophomore pole vaulter, will be out to beat his freshman record of 13 ft. 7 in. set last season. Rhodes is also a Southern Californian, migrating north from Jefferson high school in Los Angeles.

Winter also was pleased with the showing of several other performers in the interclass spectacle.

"Taylor Burton's 140-ft throw in the discus was good for this time of the year," stated Winter, "and his javelin mark of 180 feet wasn't bad."

The cinder mentor claimed that Cruickshank's 17.6 time in the 180-yd. sprint was the equivalent of a 21.4 220-yd. mark which is exceptional for the early meet. Cruickshank also ran the equal to a 9.9 100-yd. sprint when he glided to a 7.6 time in the 75-yd. event.

Newcomers who caught the eye of Winter include Ed Ferdinandsen, a transfer from College of Sequoia, who high jumped 5 ft. 10 in. to place along with basketballer Carroll Williams for top rank in high jump. Williams, who was noted for his track accomplishments in high school, has decided to stay with the varsity for the rest of the year, according to Winter.

KA, Collegians Vie

Kappa Alpha copped the fraternity side of the intramural basketball league last by defeating Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 27-18. The independent title was annexed by the Collegians who downed Phi Epsilon Kappa, 34-24.

Championship of the 1954 intramural basketball season will be decided tonight at 8 o'clock in the Men's gym when Kappa Alpha and the Collegians collide.

Jayvee, Frosh Battle Today, If Rain Permits

The varsity baseball contest scheduled for yesterday between San Francisco State and the Spartans was cancelled because of wet grounds. The next appearance for the local nine will be Saturday when they battle the University of California Bears at Berkeley.

The Spartan jayvees will open their nine-game schedule this afternoon at 3:15 o'clock when they face San Mateo JC on the local diamond. The batteries for Sparta will be Reese Dick on the mound and Bill Pitcher catching.

Coach Don Lopes' frosh squad will be seeking its third straight win today when they engage with James Lick High School on the latter's field. It also will begin at 3:15 o'clock.

Wrestlers Clash Friday, Saturday In Annual Tourney

Wrestling Coach Hugh Mumby will send an eight-man squad to the fifth annual Pacific Coast Intercollegiate tournament to be held at California Poly in San Luis Obispo Friday and Saturday.

In Dick Francis, the Spartans will have a PCI defending champion in the 177-lb. division.

The Golden Raider lineup as announced by Mumby is the following: Kay Toyata, 115-lb.; George Lao, 123-lb.; Pete Herder, 137-lb.; Russ Utley, 157-lb.; Gus Talbot, 167-lb.; Francis, 177-lb.; Jerry Ruse, 191-lb.; and Lee Baxter is the probable heavyweight starter.

Other schools in the tourney are Washington State, Oregon State, Oregon, Portland State, Lewis and Clark, San Francisco State, Cal Poly, San Diego State, California, UCLA, Stanford, and Santa Clara.

Clunie, Austin Win Doubles Match

Kent Clunie and Jim Austin were recent winners in the Bob Phelps All-College men's doubles tennis tourney, according to Net Coach Hugh Mumby.

Clunie and Austin won the title Tuesday when they defeated Don Straub and Roger Smith, 7-5, 3-6 and 6-0, in the final match.

Straub and Smith gained the runner-up spot after they downed Jack Darrah and Jim Gruhn, 7-5, 7-5, in the semi-finals. Clunie and Austin won their semi-final match from Harry Bruhn and Bob Phelps, 6-3, 5-7 and 8-6.

Denny Harris, San Jose State basketball player, was also a swimmer at Oakland's Castlemont High.

Cage Viewer Figures Show Big Increase

The average attendance for all California Basketball Assn. home contests for the past season was almost 1000 more per game than the attendance for 1953, according to Danny Hill, CBA statistician.

Thirty home games drew 66,350 CBA fans this year for an average crowd of 2212. Last season's figures show that 20 home battles drew 24,250 spectators for an average of 1213 per contest.

Coach Walt McPherson's cagers played before 14,800 fans in six CBA home games for an average audience of 2467. Last season the Spartans drew 6500 watchers in four league games for a 1600 average.

The University of San Francisco showed the biggest jump in attendance over last year when they drew 17,300 for six games to last year's mark of 5850 in four games.

The Santa Clara Broncos proved to be the biggest attraction as they drew 19,100 fans to home contests.

College of Pacific and St. Mary's showed the least gains. The Tigers from Stockton were able to draw only 6850 for the home contests while the Gaels gathered 8300 fans; COP was the poorest crowd magnet last season; it could only draw 2000 rooters.

In all, there were a total of 13 sellout crowds during the season.

State Poolmen Dropped By Golden Bears, 49-35

California downed San Jose State's swim team, 49-35, last night in the Spartan gym pool in a non-conference meet.

Earlier in the afternoon, the Spartan frosh took every event but two as they trounced Willow Glen high school, 54-21, in the Golden Raider pool.

Jay Flood swam the 150-yd. individual medley in 1:43.0, his best performance to date, to capture one of State's two first places in the varsity encounter.

The determined San Jose 400-yd. relay team staged an upset in pulling away from the highly touted Bear team to capture the event in 3:54.2.

Dick Threlfall picked up points for the locals by placing second in the 50 and 100 yard sprints.

Bill Spore of Cal was the only double winner of the evening, as he annexed firsts in the 50 and 100 yd. races.

Chuck White led the frosh victory as he tied for first in the 50-yd. swim and took a pair of seconds in the one-meter diving and 150-yd. individual medley events.

MEET YOURSELF— 10 YEARS FROM NOW

Ever wonder what you'll be like when the class of '54 holds its 10th reunion? If you started to work for one of the Bell System companies after graduation, here's a pretty good idea.

INTERESTING, RESPONSIBLE WORK: Perhaps a Commercial Manager, the company's representative and spokesman to as many as fifty thousand customers. Or a Transmission Engineer, helping to provide the telephone needs of an entire state. Or a Supervisor in the Traffic Department, responsible for the speed and quality of local and long distance service in several cities and for the personnel relations of a large number of employees.

WE MAKE SURE THERE ARE PLACES TO GO: The number of college men hired is related to the number of administrative and technical positions expected to be available in the next 10 or 15 years. It is our policy to fill these positions from within our organization.

ARTS, SCIENCE, BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION AND ENGINEERING GRADUATES are among our particular needs. The specific degree is not as important as the total effect of your college training.

NO MATTER WHAT YOUR MILITARY STATUS, contact your Placement Officer soon for details on the opportunities for employment with the Bell System.

'Reader Has Final Say,' Claims Palo Alto Editor

Reader acceptance is the most important factor in publishing a newspaper, according to Miss Elinor Cogswell, editor of the Palo Alto "Times," who spoke before Dr. Dwight Bentel's class in the "Newspaper in the Community" yesterday morning.

Discussing the topic "Local influences affecting the press," Miss Cogswell pointed out that "a newspaper can't successfully oppose its readers in any great number or it will cease to exist." However, she contended that most newspapers are more afraid of outside pressures than they need be.

The veteran newspaperwoman presented an argument in favor of one-newspaper towns by maintaining that papers in a non-competitive area are less subject to pressure attempts than those in places where competition for subscribers is keen.

Miss Cogswell, a graduate of Stanford, took a position with the "Times" 30 years ago and became editor of the paper in 1938. She is the last in a series of speakers to address the class.

Way To Cut Spending Told

Mr. Hoover did not name the groups in an address sprinkled with good humor at a National Press Club luncheon.

"If we could secure all our desires from the Congress, we could save $5 to $7 billions per year without injury to the necessary functions of government," However," Mr. Hoover added wryly, "I never expect perfections on this earth."

State Allocations Board Acts on Four Proposals

SACRAMENTO, March 10 (UP)

The State Allocations board ordered today a 5 per cent cut in the maximum allowable square foot costs of schools constructed with state aid.

"The reduction is amply justified and can be put into effect without impairment of schools," said Sen. Nelson Dilworth (R-Hemet), a member of the board.

The reduction was recommended by the State Local Allocation division after a study of construction cost trends showed the "general level of construction prices is significantly lower than in early 1953."

The lower costs were accounted for by an increase in labor efficiency, a cut in profit and overhead by contractors to get business, greater use of standard materials and special deals on materials and equipment, the survey showed.

In other action the board: 1. Recommended the City of Norwalk bring in an application for construction of 20 portable school classroom buildings as the solution of present double sessions. The action was regarded as precedent setting since it was the first time the board has indicated it would approve portable construction with state funds.

2. The board refused to rescind action holding $100,000 in funds of the East Whittier School district should be contributed to the state program pending receipt of an attorney general's opinion, but moved to have its staff restudy the application.

3. Actually apportioned some $2,500,000 to local school districts, bringing to a total of $26,323,228 the amount committed under the $185,000,000 bond issue.

The board also approved state aid in the amount of $112,000 as the state share of the cost of construction of a new boiler plant at the Long Beach General Hospital.
